"Special Edition: CEDEP Alumni in the News"

EVA IVARS - GMP N17

Eva Ivars, Alumna, GMP 17, was recently in Expansion Magazine in Spain.

According to a recent study, this excellent article about Women Directives: A Strategic Issue for Global Organisations states that female executive positions generate higher returns. Eva, who works at Affelou is quoted saying that women are quite happy to work efficiently and strategically without always being in the lime light.

CHRISTINE GENIN - GMP N17

Christine Genin, GMP 17, from Renault, has been awarded the great honour of "Femme de l'Industrie 2016" at the Trophée des Femmes de l'Industrie from L'Usine Nouvelle. Congratulations Christine! The CEDEP Team is delighted for you.

SOPHIE DUTORDOIR - GMP 64

New President of SNCB Belgian Railways, appointed from 7 March 2017, Sophie attended CEDEP as part of GDF (now ENGIE). Her first steps in her professional life in the mid-1980s were in communications, notably in politics in the cabinet of Wilfried Martens. In 1990, she entered Electrabel, where she was promoted regularly.

JOSÉ MANUEL JIMÉNEZ - AVIVA GDP14

Aviva España has appointed José Manuel Jiménez as the new director of Business Development. From this position he will coordinate the strategy of the group focused on placing the customer in the centre of the organisation in an environment of digital transformation and consolidation of the different channels of distribution.

JOSÉ LUIS CALDERÓN - AVIVA GLP4

José Luis Calderón has been appointed the new Director General of Aviva Vida y Pensiones, the branch of Aviva Spain's life insurance which distributes products and pension plans through the mediation channel. In his new position, José Luis Calderón will report to Ignacio Izquierdo, CEO of Aviva, and will become part of the Group Management Committee in Spain.

SUSANA ÁLVARO - BRAMBLES ADPG2

CHEP España has recently announced the appointment of Susana Álvaro as General Manager of CHEP in Portugal. Susana started working at CHEP in July 1997 in Spain and since then has held various executive functions in the commercial area. Her extensive knowledge and experience in the commercial field will be one of the keys to consolidate CHEP's leading position in the Portuguese market.
